

those are. Even if you take up a complaint with the Ombudsman, Social Services are under no obligation to comply with their findings. If you sue, even if the court find in your favour, there are no damages to file for. They are a law unto themselves.

In seeking to “safeguard” children any and every measure can be taken. From asking leaders of playgroups to report back, to engaging a parent’s GP practice in the whole escapade. If this is done on the basis of false accusations and to SHUT PEOPLE UP who are a nuisance, what sort of a country is this becoming? Why are police earning pay to enter my home, break my belongings and remove items? One item which has been taken is my daughter’s “Red Book” – evidence of her vaccinations and health care. How can this happen?

I will not SHUT UP. Campaigners such as Ian Josephs and David Icke are trying to alert the British public as to what is going on in this and other countries. Let me add my voice to theirs. Children are being taken into “care” for no good reason. It has become an industry in itself – AND a source of children for sick, twisted and powerful people.

What can you do? Educate yourself. Read. Look out for your own children, or grandchildren. Do not vote, both sides are as rotten as the other. Throw out your television, or use it only for watching DVDs – CANCEL YOUR TV LICENSE.

the Truth

Not everyone has the internet, follows Twitter or Facebook, so perhaps you have not heard the latest on the Savile scandal. Even if you buy newspapers, the probability of reading the truth in them is small. The mainstream media is owned by people who do not want you to know the Truth – or will feed you tiny scraps of it.

By now you have probably worked out that it is a lie that Royalty did not know what Savile was about. His tastes were an “open secret” according to many at the BBC. The Intelligence Services would have to be the most incompetent in the world for Prince Charles not to have known about it. Despite this, Sir Jimmy was knighted, not only by the Queen but by the Pope. He was also made Knight of the Garter.

“Nutter” David Icke knew about Savile for years. He has also published (many times) allegations about Ted Heath and Savile - procuring boys for him from the Haut de la Garenne Children’s Home in Jersey. Ted Heath never sued Icke for libel. Savile denied having ever been to the children's home, but there are photographs showing him there. The investigation into abuse and murder at the home was covered up by corrupt police when Lenny Harper was removed from the case. Put bluntly, the allegation is that Savile "Fixed It" for many people in high places. The children used were the most vulnerable imaginable and those who should have protected them were complicit in their abuse. According to Savile's autobiography the police would never charge him with anything: "it was well known that were I to go, I would probably take half the station with me".

So why is it that Savile was such good friends with royalty AND top politicians? Savile told magazine Esquire: 'The thing about me is I get things done and I work deep cover. I've known the Royal Family for a million years.' How did he come to spend 11 consecutive Christmases at Chequers with Margaret Thatcher? Is the establishment totally morally bankrupt? The short answer is: YES. It still is.

MP Tom Watson has recently tried to prize open the can of worms by asking at Prime Minister's Question Time that the evidence used to convict Peter Righton be re-examined as it contains "clear intelligence suggesting a powerful paedophile network linked to Parliament and Number 10". However, asking the police, politicians or judiciary to investigate corruption within their own ranks is asking for yet another cover up.

On 6/11/12, Keith Gregory, victim of abuse in Welsh children's home Bryn Estyn told Nicki Campbell on 5 Live that amongst the powerful people who came to abuse boys were policemen, politicians, judges and so on. He told an astonished Campbell that ALL of them were FREEMASONS.

It is important that we, the people, realise this:

MEDIA = CORRUPT GOVERNMENT = CORRUPT
POLICE = CORRUPT SOCIAL SERVICES = CORRUPT COUNCILS = CORRUPT DOCTORS = CORRUPT

my Story

So, who am I, that I should bother doing this? "Nutter" Charlie Foulkes, a 40 year old, arthritic, single mother. 4 years ago, when my daughter was born, I approached Lewisham Social Services with a view to getting some support with my new baby. It took me 5 months to get any care and much campaigning. Government guidance says that disabled parents should be overseen by the Adults Department. Of course, Social Services insisted on involving the Children's side. Right from the start, they were doing what they do to every disabled parent who asks for help. Eventually, I asked for my records, under the Freedom of Information Act. A Social Worker called Richard Hodgkiss was "regularly" visiting my Facebook page. The Council later admitted he was also looking at my posts on the Disabled Parents Network web site. Once I became involved in the Truth Movement, they began getting our carer to write weekly reports on me. They have tried every trick in the book to remove my daughter. Since they have realised they cannot, they have tried to do it by the backdoor – granting custody to my abusive former partner. They have also failed at this, thus far. As "nuts" as I may seem to some people, I have full mental capacity and care for my daughter very well.

When I found out about Hodgkiss and his spying, I wrote a stiff email to him, copying in about 500 other Council employees and local Councillors. Evidently he was very embarrassed by the email, where I questioned why taxpayer's money should be used to spy on parents. I told him that this was "surveillance" not care and what would happen next – would I find him rifling through my wheelie bin? Well, what came next was worse than that. My daughter and I are now under police surveillance and my neighbours have been told my daughter is at risk. Social Services work closely with Police Child Protection Units, and they are as corrupt as Social Services are.

During my time volunteering at Disabled Parents Network, I did not hear one positive account of Social Services involvement. We were always told to use the complaints procedure. What a waste of time
